The Harpooner's Story.

New Bedford, June 1, 1383.

Dr. J. C. Ayen & Co.—Twenty years ago i was a harpooner in the North Pacific, when twe others of the crew and myself were laid up with sentry. Our bodies were bloated, gams swollen and bleeding, teeth loose, purple blotches all over us, and our breath seemed rotten. Take it by and large we were pretty badly off. All our limeguice was accidentally destroyed, but the captain had a couple dozen bettles of AYER'S FARSANSHAX and gave us that. We recovered on it quicker than I have ever seen membrought about by any other treatments or Secret, and I've seen a good deal of it. Seeing no membron in your Almanac of your Sarsaps fills being good for searcy. I thought you ought to know of this, and so send you the facts.

Respectfully yours, Ralph Y. Windaye.

The Trooper's Exectionee. Respectfully yours, RALPHY, WINGATE,
The Trooper's Experience.

Marra, Basatoland S. Africa, Morell, 1983.
Du. J. C. Aven & Co.—Gentlemen: I have much pleasure to testify to the great value of your Sarsaparilla. We have been stationed here for over two years, during which time we had to live in tents. Being under canvas for such a time brought on what is called in the country "veldt-seres." I had those sores for some time. I was advised to take your Sarsaparilla, two battles of which made my sores disappear rapidly, and I am new quite well.

Yours truly. T. K. Bonzy,

Trooper, Cape Mounted Liftenen.
